

Latah Soil & Water Conservation District

2019 Annual Summary

Soils Table at Conservation Awareness Days - May

Riparian Planting on Hog Meadow Creek - June

Bumblebee on Fritillaria - April

Vegetation Monitoring on Paradise Ridge - May

The Year in Numbers

33 Landowners Participating in Active Programs

438 Youth Participated in Field Trips and Presentations

16,500 UAS Monitoring Photos Taken

13,510 Hours of Work by the Latah SWCD Field Crew

6,927 Pounds of Native Seed Applied on Restoration Projects

20,800 Native Seedlings and Cuttings Planted on Restoration Sites

54 Beaver Dam Analogs Installed

374 Spalding's Catchfly Seedlings Planted

173.6 Acres of Palouse Prairie Restoration

117.5 Acres of Wetland Restoration

6.22 Stream Miles in Active Restoration Projects

Culvert Replacement on Vassar Meadow Road - November

Habitat Structure Installation on East Fork Potlatch - August

Streambank Bioengineering Project on Big Bear Creek – Sept.